More Information

About Nancy Redding:

Nancy Redding, M.Ed. is a Fellow-In-Training with AOGPE. She has 40 years of experience with OG, both in academic therapy with students of all ages, and in conducting teacher training. She has been a learning specialist at the elementary, high school and community college levels. Nancy is the co-author of Patterns for Success, an OG based reading and spelling program designed as a supplement to OG instruction. She has presented at numerous workshops and conferences, and is active in International Dyslexia Association, both at the local and national levels.

The Registration Fee includes two Training Manuals. Lunch is provided. You will need to bring some supplies for note taking and organizing information. A list of required readings and supplies is provided upon registration.

This 4 day training does not provide a practicum, which is required to complete the Classroom Educator certification from AOGPE; the practicum will be arranged separately for those desiring certification.

What is the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators?

The express purposes of the Academy are to:

- Establish and maintain professional and ethical standards for practitioners and educators of the Orton-Gillingham Approach for the treatment of dyslexia.
- Certify individuals who have demonstrated competence as practitioners and educators of the Orton-Gillingham Approach
- Accredit programs train Orton-Gillingham practitioners and educators.
- Accredit, in schools, clinics, and summer programs, Orton-Gillingham instruction that meets Academy standards.
- Sponsor, promote and undertake research relevant to Orton-Gillingham instruction and disseminate the results of such research.
- Promote public awareness of the needs of children and adults with dyslexia, and of the Orton-Gillingham Approach for the treatment of dyslexia.
- Visit the AOGPE website at: www.ortonacademy.org
